

REVISION OF GRAMMAR

Adjectives

A quick reminder:

When we want to describe a noun, we use special words called adjectives.

Here are some examples:

Luke was looking at an old book when he found the map. Lost Loot, it was called. The Pleasure of Treasure.

Who knows, thought Luke. Here I am deep in the South American jungle. I might find some treasure! How exciting.

Out fell a map. It was yellow with age. It was crumpled and torn, rumped and worn. "Wow," said Luke. "A real treasure map!"

(From The Eye of the Idol, Adventure stories, Ziptales)

All the words highlighted are adjectives.

Why do we need them?

Because they make our writing more interesting. Read this sentence:

Out fell a map.

Now, let's add some adjectives:

Out fell a map. It was yellow with age. It was crumpled and torn,
rumped and worn.

The adjectives make the sentence more interesting and give us a much clearer picture of the noun they are describing, in this case – a map.

Look at these examples of how using different adjectives can change the same noun they are describing:

an excited boy; an upset boy; an overjoyed boy

a sweet and happy girl; a mean and nasty girl; a lonely and forgotten girl a lovely brown and gold horse; a tiny black and white horse

a spooky, cobweb-infested, haunted house; a large, beautiful, welcoming house

But...adjectives can be complicated.

Sometimes you want to make comparisons. For example:

My baby cousin is very small. (adjective)

My baby cousin is smaller than me. (comparative)

My baby cousin is the smallest member of the family. (superlative)

Rules for comparing adjectives.

Rule 1: Usually we just add 'er' and 'est' to adjectives when we are using comparisons.

For example: tall, taller, tallest and fast, faster, fastest

Rule 2: If the adjective ends with a vowel then a consonant, we need to double the last letter before adding 'er' and 'est'.

For example: big, bigger, biggest and sad, sadder, saddest

Rule 3: If the adjective ends in 'y', we change 'y' to 'i', then add 'er' and 'est'.

For example: scary, scarier, scariest and happy, happier, happiest

Rule 4: Sometimes we don't add 'er' and 'est' – we put 'more' and 'most' before the adjective we are comparing.

For example: beautiful, more beautiful, most beautiful
terrifying, more terrifying, most terrifying

EXERCISE 1

Write the correct form of the adjectives in the brackets to finish these sentences about the story The Eye of the Idol.

1. Luke walked for a _____ time through the valley. (long)
2. Ahead was the _____ ravine he had ever seen. (deep)
3. In the swamp were long shapes that looked _____ than rocks. Crocodiles!
(dark)
4. Luke saw three caves - one looked _____ than the others. (big)
5. He made his way across the _____ rope bridge. (shaky)
6. The bridge broke. Down he fell. It was the _____ moment of his life. (terrifying)
7. Luke fell into the water right next to a huge crocodile. This was _____ than falling! (scary)
8. Luke leapt onto the huge crocodile, then jumped onto a _____ crocodile.
(small)
9. He finally made it back to the shore where he felt much _____. (safe)
10. Luke saw the skull rock. It was _____ than he expected. (large)

11. He went inside the cave. It was full of the _____ snakes on earth! (slimy)
12. Luke saw a golden statue – it was the _____ thing he had ever seen.
(beautiful)
13. He heard a noise – there was a _____ man behind him holding a gun.
(strange)
14. Luke knew his safety was _____ than getting the statue. (important)

EXERCISE 2

Circle the correct use of the adjective in these sentences.

- 1 Jemma is the nice/nicer/nicest girl I have ever met.
- 2 I think the circus is the great/greater/greatest show on earth.
- 3 One of the baby birds looked small/smaller/smallest than the others.
- 4 We chose the little/littler/littlest rabbit to take home for our pet.
- 5 “Thank you children for being quiet/quieter/quietest than before,” said the teacher.
- 6 The big/bigger/biggest boy in the school broke his arm.
- 7 It was the beautiful/more beautiful/most beautiful horse I had ever seen.
- 8 Our class is always noisy/noisier/noisiest than the class next door.
- 9 The brontosaurus was large/larger/largest than most other dinosaurs.
- 10 They were the comfortable/more comfortable/most comfortable shoes I had ever worn.

Challenge

Some adjective comparisons use completely different words! For example:

bad      worse      worst

good    better    best far      further    furthest

many    more      most

Circle the correct use of the adjective in these sentences.

That morning, I felt bad/worse/worst than ever.

My dog has really bad/worse/worst breath after eating his dinner.

Tom is good/better/best than me at swimming.

It's the good/better/best movie I've seen this year.

Our house is the far/further/furthest away from the school.

We walked far/further/furthest than usual.

I ate many/more/most lollies than you at the party.

Our largest chicken always lays the many/more/most eggs.