

Worksheet 2

The Big Sister

Family Crest

In the story, Morgan realised that families are very important. Think about your own family and design a family crest in the boxes below displaying why your family is special.

Follow the instructions for each box:

Box 1. Draw each member of your family that lives in your house (including your pets if you have any!)

Box 2. Draw a special place that you like to go with your family.

Box 3. Draw three things that you like to do together as a family.

Box 4. Write three positive things about your family.
