The Ghost Train Adjectives

Adjectives are describing words. They can help add more information about something by describing it in detail. The author uses lots of adjectives in the story 'Ghost Train' in order to give you a clearer picture of some of the Ghost Train creatures.

Use adjectives from the box below to complete the sentences.

crooked black gangly little hairy first drooling ugly bald squinty

A strange looking man with a _____ head, _____ eyes and a _____ nose peered back at them from the _____ window. No sooner had the train rounded the _____ bend, than a _____ skeleton sprang out of a hole in the wall. The trolls were absolutely hideous. They had _____ mouths and _____ bodies. Two _____ old witches appeared, dressed in _____ robes.

Challenge

Jason and Katie had quite an experience on the ride at the Fun Park. Write about a strange experience that may have happened to you or someone that you know.
