In Your Sleep Similes

'When I opened my eyes, there it was! A massive black, hairy beast of a spider sitting on my cheek. It was so huge, it was as big as the whole side of my face!'

In the story, Dad says that the spider is as big as the whole side of his face! When something is compared to something else, it is called a 'simile'.

See if you can finish off the similes below using animals from the box.
